Inner Healing and Deliverance Prayers

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is upon me, for the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.

*He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound - Isaiah 61:1*

*Most of the prayers in this PDF are unique and not a replica of other people's ideas ~ they are created through revelation of the Holy Spirit and our view of what He has shown us as He works with us. There may be the odd prayer or idea that has been added to our Ministry from others because it impacted us, but more often than not you will be viewing an original.

All prayers are subject to change as God gives new insight and revelation. All prayers are to be prayed out loud. Often you will see we ask you to do a prophetic act. A prophetic act is an action of obedience as a step of faith in the natural (physical) realm that supports God's workings in the spiritual realm, to release the power, presence and victory of God into a situation.

Prayer Of Protection: “Father God in the name of Jesus Christ and by the Power of Your Holy Spirit I pray that You would guide me through this journey of deliverance and healing. I thank You for the presence of the Holy Spirit.

I ask for Your protection, and that I am covered with the Blood of Jesus Christ. I also pray this protection over my loved ones, our pets, our belongings and our surroundings.

With the authority given to me by the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, I bind you Satan, all demons and any other agents of Satan, my own human flesh which is antichrist, from any harm or attacks targeting me, my family, our homes and properties, our pets and belongings, our health and our finances, our businesses and our ministries.

I also bind you from any interference, distraction, transference, or blocking or counterfeiting the Holy Spirit, in Jesus name. I bind up and forbid any counterfeit gifts, un-godly manifestations, and lying signs and wonders, in Jesus name.

Father God, I thank You for Your heavenly angels and pray that they would be released in accordance with Your word.”

Please Note - Many of our prayers as an added precaution will include the term ‘ancestors’ to cover any sins that they may have participated in that you are unaware of.

Spiritual Gifts - For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance (Romans 11:29, KJV). Every single person has a calling in God. Your calling is what you are called by Him to accomplish for Him on His behalf. God gives you gifts in accordance with your calling. Your calling and your gifts (such as gift of prophecy, wisdom, words of knowledge, healing, discerning between spirits etc will never be taken away by God. Once given they are yours. This however does not mean that they will always be active – if God asks you to use your gifts and you ignore the prompting too many times He will eventually stop asking. He will stop using you and use the one who is listening and obeying.

Many of us can also operate in counterfeit gifts. We can receive these when entering into occult activities or even if we are desiring God’s gifts for selfish reasons.

(PRAYER) – “Father God in Jesus name I thank You for the calling of God over my life and the spiritual gifts you have given me to fulfil this calling. I am sorry if I have ignored them or misused them. I now ask for You to please fill me with the gifts I need for the purposes You have called me to do and show me how to use them. If I have any counterfeit gifts I lay them down and ask You to take them away. I repent for any activity I have done that allowed the enemy to give me counterfeit gifts. If I am using any counterfeit gifts I ask that You would reveal them to me. Thank You, in Jesus name I pray, Amen.”

Desiring The Best Gifts – I once received a word for a lady whom God showed me was not feeling very important to God. She was the one who was always helping out others and would look at the other gifts that she felt were better and compared herself to those who walked in them. This is what He spoke to me for her: - “You have many uses. I have used you for many things. You do not know your actual purpose as I have used you for so many different things. The truth is that is your purpose. Just as Joseph had a coat of many colours, you have gifts of many functions for different uses. Helps – this is a person utilised by God to work in different gifting’s to aide others. Do not think this is demeaning or ‘not good enough’ in the Kingdom of God because without people like you the Kingdom could not function. Many parts, one body. You are like a cog in a well-oiled machine – put together by God for God. I have many more uses for you, all of which won’t be the same. Diverse functions, diverse gifts helping the flow of My Kingdom. People can look to the prophets, the apostles, the teachers, the pastors, the healers and want to be like them. No, I say - I made you all different, each with a unique ability and purpose to serve Me. I am no respecter of persons – all are created equal. No one is greater than another because of their gift. I will say that again ‘no one is greater than another because of their gift’. Why then does the Bible say to earnestly desire the best gifts? How can one gift be greater than another? Compare cleaning up the coffee cups after the Church service to walking in miracles and healing the eyes of the blind. Healing the eyes of the blind is a sign and a wonder and brings many to Me. It also glorifies Me, but at the same time it also brings attention to you. Man will often look to you and exalt you after the display of God’s presence.” (I looked up the word exalt and in Greek it is hupsoo and means to raise to dignity, honour and happiness. He continued, “Cleaning up coffee cups at the end of Church service is humbling for you. What does the word say about humility? But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble (James 4:6, KJV).” I looked up the word resisteth in Greek and it was Antitassomai {an-tee-tas'-som-ahee} and means 1) to range in battle against 2) to oppose one's self.

He continued, “When you humble yourself I will exalt you. Many who walk in the frontline gifting’s have to be humbled because they are being exalted by their gifts. When you see one who is walking in a gift that seems in your eyes greater than yours remember this – you are already humbled and are ready to be exalted whilst they are being exalted and may need humbling. The greater the gift the more you have to be cautious against pride – it is easy to believe you are better or superior to others. Although there are greater gifts there are not greater people because of their gifts. The best gifts are the ones that build up the body and glorify God. Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church (1 Corinthians 14:12, KJV). Gifts that glorify God as well as self means you have to go through a humbling experience lest you become proud. (2 Corinthians 12:7, KJV). And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. The word of God also warns against those who want to exalt themselves. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted (Matthew 23:12, KJV). Your desire for the best gifts should always be to exalt and glorify God and edify the Church. Any desire for the gifts of God for self-prominence or self-gain means that there will be a humbling to come. You are ready to be exalted because you have been humbled. Desire the best gifts – but especially that you may prophesy. Prophecy builds up the body. Cover her in prophecy and in love which is the bond of perfection. In Jesus name and in the power of Jesus Christ the Kingdom of God exalts you, Amen.”

(PRAYER) – “Dear God in the name of Jesus I ask for the best gifts, and especially that I may prophesy. I repent for believing my gifts were not as important as those who walk in the greater gifts. All gifts are from God and are equally important to the Kingdom of God. When I have walked in greater gifts I repent for believing I am more important or better than others who do not walk in the greater gifts. I repent for desiring the gifts of God with a wrong heart motive especially when it was for self-prominence and self-gain. Help me to desire them with a Godly motive and perspective for the right reasons which is to glorify You and Your Kingdom, help people and save souls. I repent for anytime I have exalted myself in the things of God. Thank You Father for all humbling experiences that You have given me so that I can be exalted in You. I pray that I would be covered in prophecy and in love which is the bond of perfection, Amen.”

Discernment - Gift of Discerning of Spirits - To another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues (1 Corinthians 12:10, NKJV).

But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil (Hebrews 5:14, NKJV). Discerning of spirits and discerning between good and evil is a God given ability. What can block this gifting given by God? Have you ever seen something that you didn't like and proclaimed "I don't want to see that", or "I don't want to see evil things"? God showed me that is all it takes for this gift to become blocked and not used effectively. A demonic spirit will use this as legal ground to block your ability to discern evil from good. Deception is rife and we need this gift to discern whether it is good (in line with the Word of God) or bad (not in line with the Word of God). What we speak can bring life or death. But blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear (Matthew 13:16, NKJV). This Scripture shows us that to 'see' and to 'hear' is a blessing. God showed me that He cannot look at sin, He has to turn away. Before you can turn away you must first see. Once you see something you do not like then of course 'turn away' and do not look back. This applies to sin. There is a difference to not wanting to 'see' than not wanting to 'look'! Discernment is one of the most important gifts that the body of Christ need today. Since I was first saved I have had an ability to hear the Holy Spirit and demonic spirits everywhere I go. Demonic spirits will swear and curse at me when I enter other people's houses, or even when I go into shops. I always believed this was part of my God-given gift to hear into the spirit realm but many other deliverance Ministers had other ideas. Many tried to tell me that I shouldn't be able to hear demons and asked me to renounce and reject this ability. I believed them initially and partnered with them. No matter how much I prayed for God to take away the voices of the demonic spirits they never went away. My discernment to discern between the voices was getting harder and harder.

I believe that God allowed me to hear to teach me discernment between the voices and I am now very grateful for this gifting. When we have sin in our lives we will always 'hear' the demonic. I believe that people who don't think they can hear the demonic are being deceived. There are many thoughts we hear in our minds day long that are not our own. These thoughts can either be from the Holy Spirit or the demonic. It is my belief that the more clean you become the less you will hear as they are removed from you. We are each given an amount of sensitivity - the more sensitive you are the more in tune with the spirit realm. I have never heard the Holy Spirit or demonic spirits audibly – it has only ever been as words spoken into my mind as thoughts. Sometimes it sounds like an actual voice, other times it sounds like my own voice speaking things inside my mind. Determining God in this is very hard. Demons will mimic the Holy Spirit every opportunity they get to lead us astray. If we don't know the Word of God, the character of God and have this important gift it is impossible to discern. The amount of times I have been deceived this way is sadly too many to count. Misusing this gift can also cause it to become blocked or distorted. One way of misuse is when we don't trust our God-given discernment allowing doubt to prevent us from stepping out when God is speaking to us. Another way is when we are not sure if God is speaking to us but we step out anyway for the wrong reasons, such as wanting the limelight, attention, or acceptance from others. Stepping out when not sure because of obedience and wanting to help others is fine.

(PRAYER) – “Father God in Jesus name I repent for every time I have misused your gift of discernment. I repent for not trusting in this gift which resulted in missed opportunities. I repent also for anytime I wasn't sure and stepped out for the wrong reasons such as wanting to gain acceptance, attention or the limelight. I repent also for all the times I have rejected your Gift of Discernment. I repent for all declarations of not wanting to see or hear evil things. I repent also for not wanting to see other things that I am not comfortable with, that could include good things inside Your Kingdom that take me out of my comfort zone. I ask Father God that You would give me the Gift of Discernment and the ability to discern both good and evil. Help me to see deception operating when things appear good. Help me also to see 'good' when things appear bad. Help me to also know when to step out, and when not to. I now address every demonic spirit who blocks my ability to discern both good and evil and command you to leave in the name and power of almighty Jesus Christ.”

Signs/Wonders/Miracles – What are signs/wonders and miracles? They are moves of God that are done by unseen hands. One aspect is seeing people healed and set free from physical and emotional disease without the intervention of man. Signs/Wonders and Miracles from God seems at this point to be at an all-time low. Since the day I was saved I have hungered to see God's power at work. I love the signs/wonders and miracles. I love that they glorify God. I love seeing people get set free and I love that they can bring unbelievers into the Kingdom. There is so much warning in the Bible about lying signs and wonders that God's children have become weary. I feel that many have stopped hungering and praying for signs/wonders and miracles for fear of the counterfeit. Seeking signs/wonders and miracles for the wrong reasons can definitely bring in lying signs and wonders and counterfeit gifts so it is good to be careful. I hunger deeply for Gods signs/wonders and miracles – I believe however that I hunger for them for the right reasons. In my earlier walk as a newbie a big part of ‘wanting’ was the thrill factor. I loved them for the right reasons but I also loved them simply because they were cool. But, no matter how awesome, I would always rather have no signs and wonders than counterfeit ones. I don’t want anything counterfeit, all I want is God and His truth. One of my biggest prayers to God is that He protect us and this Ministry from deception and counterfeit power. God held back signs/wonders and miracles from this Ministry I believe until we were ready. This is for our own protection and I am eternally grateful for that.

Two weeks ago a lady who is a prophetess gave me a word that God was going to bring signs/wonders and miracles to the Ministry. God also confirmed this word to me. I shared this word in excitement to some Christian friends who then asked me ‘Why do you want signs/wonders and miracles, are you not happy with faith? They told me it was a faith walk – which we walk by faith and not by sight. They told me that I didn’t need to see signs/wonders and miracles and if I wasn’t careful I would get given false signs and wonders. I was super gobsmacked – these people were telling me that they were happy with simply having the faith to believe – they didn’t actually need to see the results of their faith. What is the point of faith if it isn’t used to move mountains? Faith is the beginning of miracles. The Lord spoke the word ‘complacency’ to me. He showed me that people had become complacent, merely happy with the expectation of their promises and that they had developed a mind-set of waiting. It didn’t matter if they never saw it come to pass, all that mattered was that they lived by faith. I felt heavy. I felt burdened. A sign/wonder and a miracle is what I needed to be well again. I needed Gods supernatural healing and I needed an impartation of His love. Can I keep doing God’s work without this – probably but it isn’t really glorifying Him to be stuck just managing on medication. God promises His manifest power to those who believe and I for one hunger for it. I am not happy with just walking in faith waiting for the promise. I want to be an outworking sign and a manifest example to the actual outworking of His promise! I want to be a recipient of His healing power. I want those who are sick and need healing to also be a recipient of His healing power. As soon as they had gone I sought the Lord because I felt that this complacent mind-set may be a stumbling block as to why signs/wonders and miracles weren’t being released.

This is what He showed me: - “Signs/wonders and miracles bring glory to God. They turn hopelessness into joy. They give us a future and a hope. Be hungry for signs/wonders and miracles. Be expectant. Ask for them. Those who are proclaiming that faith is enough are actually hindering the signs/wonders and miracles being released. They are proclaiming they don’t need them. In doing this why would I release them? Jesus walked in signs/wonders and miracles everywhere He went. The Bible says that you will do greater works than Him. “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father” (John 14:12, NKJV). Works in this aspect is the gifts in action with the resulting signs/wonders and miracles that ensued. James says that faith without works is dead.

What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble! But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead? (James 2:14-20, NKJV). Faith is the beginning of your walk – you need faith to be released to activate the miracles.

So Jesus answered and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' it will be done (Matthew 21:21, NKJV). You should not become complacent in your faith and accept that faith by itself is enough. Faith is an action word. You release your faith which in turn releases the power of God. You are not given faith to simply hang on to it. Faith needs to be released into faith with works because faith by itself without works is dead. You have to do something with faith. If you desire the power of God for the right reasons with a right heart motive then you need not fear the counterfeit. If you want it to glorify self or simply as a 'wow factor' in your walk then you are not wanting them from a right heart motive. If you want them to glorify God, to show the lost the way and to see the captives released then seek Me for them and you will receive them. And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover" (Mark 16:17-18, NKJV).

(PRAYER) – “Father God I repent for complacency. I repent that I was content with faith and did not hunger for the works that accompanies faith. I repent for faith without works which is rendered dead. Your word says that I will do even greater works than Jesus did. These works Lord include the signs/wonders and miracles. Your power in me will produce this. I hunger for your signs/wonders and miracles. Use me to work Your power through. Release to me Lord your power, Your fruit and Your gifts. I believe in You and I believe in Your power Lord Jesus so I declare that Your signs and wonders will follow me wherever I go. Give me these things Lord to use for Your Kingdom. Let me use them to glorify You, to save the lost and set those at liberty who are bound. I declare that I do not want counterfeit gifts or lying signs/wonders and miracles. I rebuke these and ask that You keep them far from me. Search my heart Oh God and see if there is any wicked way in me. If Lord you find I want the gifts, signs/wonders and miracles from a wrong heart motive then do not release them to me. If more work is to be done then prepare my heart to be ready to receive them. Help me to want them from a right heart motive. I trust You and I trust Your timing. These things I pray in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.”

Knowing The Voice of Jesus – And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers (John 10:4-5, KJV).

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand (John 10:27-28, KJV).

The word of God shows us that we know the voice of our saviour - the Lord Jesus Christ. I am not sure about you, but for me this has been the hardest aspect of my walk. I am blessed to be able to hear really well into the spiritual realm. I am bombarded with voices, pictures and thoughts that are not my own. Before I was saved I always laughed at my busy head, believing I had a really active imagination. After I was saved those thoughts, pictures and voices became angry. I remember the day I was water baptised. When I was lifted out of the water I heard a multitude of angry voices swearing obscenities at me. I tend to hear demons wherever I go, more so when entering places where God has called me to deliver something. I have never heard a spirit speaking to me audibly (including the Holy Spirit) so for me to 'hear' Jesus speaking to me it has always been through my own thoughts (which includes hearing or seeing in words, sentences or pictures). Another faculty the Lord uses for me is through smells, feelings or touch.

The thing I heard most spoken by other Christians was how they found it hard to discern between their own thoughts and the voice of the Holy Spirit within those thoughts. I was the complete opposite – whenever I got words spoken into my mind, or a picture I pretty much knew when it was my own thoughts as opposed to whether it came from a spiritual source, but the problem was I couldn't tell the difference between the source of the voice. You would think that discerning between good and evil would be easy, and it is when the evil ones are revealing themselves in their true form, but the problem is more often than not they will reveal themselves to you as an angel of light. Their job is to deceive. God lead me on a journey to know His voice because He told me that I would speak His rhema word into the lives of many. The enemy did a real number on me using feelings, emotions, Scriptures, and even telling me what I wanted to hear in order to trick me.

I would sit under the presence of the Lord Jesus and ask Him through His Holy Spirit to speak to me so I could learn His voice. Many times I would put aside time, wait on Him and receive two sets of different words that looked the same and then I was told I had to discern Him from the two. I would take them to Mark and other people. I would say, "Help me to discern Jesus through these two different words so I can learn His voice." The problem was they both seemed right and more often than not we couldn't tell the difference. I would get incredibly frustrated during these times. I would mention to others about the times that God spoke and I would get such a knowing that I just knew that I knew it was Him. I loved those times as they were easy to discern. I would wonder why God couldn't talk to me all the time like that instead of sending me these confusing messages and ask me to discern. After many years of this Mark got a revelation. He said to me "I don't think any of them are God when you get these words to try and discern, it is the enemy playing games with you, which is why you can't discern between the two, because none of them are God.” I laughed as the penny dropped. Of course the enemy was doing this to send confusion.

Whilst I was trying to learn the voice of God (who of course is also Jesus Christ through His Holy Spirit) I got told by other people to simply step out when I had been shown something and test it to see if it was right or wrong. I felt that was a good idea and lived by this principle. Sometimes I got the peace and knowing and I enjoyed those times because I was much more confident that it was right.

The problem was however 9/10 times when I couldn't discern the source of the voice with the 'peace and knowing' it would be still be confirmed by the person I had given the word too that what I was shown was right because it was accurate. This went on for many years and I got quite comfortable and then tended to step out more and more with what I was shown even though I didn't have the peace and knowing (unless of course it didn't line up with Scripture or the character of God). The problem was even though it was confirmed by the recipient to be accurate there seemed to be little fruit coming from it. It concerned me but I figured maybe it was because I was just playing a part in the final outcome and someone else would get more for them later.

When I laid down the Ministry in October 2016 the Lord had told me that a new Ministry would take its place. He told me that I would give birth to the new Ministry when the time was right. About a year after the laying down I received some baby food in my grocery order. I did not order any baby food and figured it was a sign from God that it was soon. A couple nights later I was at home when I heard a voice tell me it was time to deliver. I didn't know what to do so I googled 'How to birth a Ministry in God'. Most sites said to pray in tongues. I started praying in tongues walking up and down the Hallway. I felt overwhelmed with emotion and got encompassed by a feeling of spiritual energy which I believed to be God and started crying and yelling to Mark – “The baby is coming”. Mark and the kids gathered around me praying in tongues. We prayed and asked God for confirmation that this was from Him. Nobody got confirmation but I was so encompassed in overwhelming feelings we decided it was must have been right. We asked God what to do and I felt to simply give a gentle push in a prophetic act. Mark and I both saw a baby boy in a vision being delivered. In a prophetic act Mark cut the umbilical cord and handed the baby to me. Interestingly Mark and I both saw the baby as dark-skinned which we felt strange because we are both white-skinned. Not long after this Mark had a dream about a child we had and it was dark-skinned and he realised in the dream how hard it was for him to accept this child because it meant I had been having an affair and of course the baby wasn't his. I asked him if he thought it was a warning about the baby I had prophetically delivered in regard to the new Ministry. We both prayed and asked God to show us if this was deception or not.

A few days later I set aside time to spend with the Lord Jesus and during this time this is what I heard: - “What is it that you seek? I said “I seek You Lord Jesus Christ.” I heard, “Are you willing to hear what I say? I am going to ask you to do something and you will not want to do it. The birth of the baby was deception and not of Me. It was all about feelings and what you felt. If you entered into Ministry with this baby it would be all about counterfeit feelings, signs and wonders. In order for the new to come you need to renounce this baby. You need to cut ungodly soul ties with this Ministry baby and repent for believing this was the true Ministry that I have for you. Ask Me to release the true Ministry I have for you. I need you to repent for partnering with foreign gods. You and Mark prayed and asked if this was of Me and wanted confirmation. Nobody was sure so you went ahead anyway. This isn't entirely wrong in itself as you stepped out in faith in the hope that it was, and because of this I will show you the truth. I want for you to have the real. How do you tell the difference? Look for the inner witness. This comes from your spirit and is called intuition. From now on if you doubt do not step out. Wait for more. There is a teaching that says if you are not sure then go ahead, step out and give it a try. You can learn if it was My voice by stepping out but it can also open the door for deception to enter. Once you learn My voice wait for the recognition of My voice hereinafter. I am calling people to be more accurate. Fear prevents people from moving ahead and stepping out. This is different to being sure it is of Me. If you are unsure of the source of the voice do not step out. I am calling you to accuracy, not hit and miss. Tell me that you will not step out unless you know it is My voice that instructs you.

You don't want to do this, but do this you must because you are not allowing Me to develop in you a knowing of My voice. If I speak and you are unsure, wait until you are sure. The enemy wants you to run ahead and not learn My voice. The enemy wants to give you thrills, bells and whistles so it looks and feels good. My voice comes in the stillness of the waiting. If the first time you do not know it is Me, in the waiting I give you more so you can discern Me. If more does not come then discard what you were given. Some words I give are 'now' words, some are for later. If it is a 'now' word from Me the peace and knowing will come immediately. I want you to know My voice, not guess it. It is imperative that you recognise My voice from the rest. It is not about feelings, emotions, smell, taste and touch although I can still use these faculties. It is about knowing My voice and recognising it. The recognition of My voice comes from your spirit. This is your gut instinct. I am calling you to know My voice. When I speak it comes with a peace and knowing. I will use this every time I speak to you. It can be missed through circumstances, and if you miss it and are unsure ask for more. There is a time to practice and a time to get serious. I am calling you to know My voice every time I speak to you. In the past you have wanted everything to be Me because you love the 'God factor' and the God moments. This has been a distraction and an open door for the enemy to deceive. Repent for this and become more discerning. Seek My voice. Ask Me to show you My voice. Ask Me to teach you My voice. In the perilous times to come it is imperative that My children know My voice. Ask Me, and if it is Me I will show you without a doubt. You know My voice you just haven't given Me a chance to show you. Not everything you have been getting was from Me. The enemy is clever – he will give you truths so you can't practice discerning Me. This is no different to being accurate in the same way as a medium, psychic or clairvoyant. Even though the word may be accurate if it is not from Me it will not produce good fruit. What you have sometimes been giving is watered down versions of the truth. This was so you couldn't discern My voice and so the person you were giving the words to were not receiving My truth from them. It is the truth from God that sets you free so without My truth the people you were giving them too were not being set free.

I cannot give you the New Ministry I have for you until you know My voice. The new Ministry is reliant upon knowing My voice”

My heart sank when I got this word because I know that waiting is not my strong suit. I am over-excitabile and want to do things straight away. I am an instant person, it has to be done right now otherwise I worry if I put something off I would forget about it and miss it altogether. He was right I did love the God factor and the God moments and the supernatural stuff so much that the enemy was using it so I would run ahead. What I did like though was that God told me that He can give me that peace and knowing every time He speaks to me. I had previously come to the conclusion that was only for rare occasions. I now had a definite way to gauge the voice of God. In reality I thought God was speaking to me and using me all the time, but He wasn't. The enemy was also showing me things and giving me 'wow' moments because they knew that this pleased my flesh.

Another way God can confirm with the peace and knowing is by the witness of 2-3. He may use other people to confirm the word He has spoken to you. You will get the 'peace and knowing' when you witness with what they say. This is different to giving a word to someone that seems right just because they confirm to you that it is accurate. Accuracy doesn't necessarily bring good fruit, or God-fruit. The devil likes to mix truth with hidden lies or deception to prevent you looking for the 'peace and knowing'. The peace and knowing comes when your spirit witnesses with His Spirit.

After receiving this word if something I received did not come with that inner witness, (the peace and knowing that comes from your gut instinct) then I would simply not step out. When I first started practising it I felt disobedient because I would get a picture, or a word for someone and want to give it but didn't. The longer I waited however I then noticed that I would either never get that peace and knowing and have to leave it, or it became so strong it would almost poke me in the eye. Many times I would write down what I received and file it in a folder called 'Words for people' and months later I would get a prompting with that 'peace and knowing' and know it was now time to give that word. Some words are for now, some for later and some are deception never to be given at all. God was teaching me so much. Was it an easy lesson? Absolutely not but nonetheless absolutely necessary. With this new found knowledge I started seeing fruit, more fruit than ever before.

As I was sitting writing this word I got reminded by the Holy Spirit that around five years ago I wrote an article on our website called 'Discerning the voice of God'. I decided to go back and reread it. I read it and became quite annoyed with myself. In this article the Lord had taught me pretty much what I was writing today about 'not stepping out until I had the peace and knowing'. He spoke to me then about how my emotions were volatile and that I discerned everything through my feelings from my soul instead of discerning through His gift of intuition that operates from our spirit. The word intuition according to the dictionary is: 1. The act or faculty of knowing or sensing without the use of rational processes; immediate cognition. 2. Knowledge gained by the use of this faculty; a perceptive insight. 3. A sense of something not evident or deducible; an impression. I believe that the gift of discernment working with the gift of wisdom gives you the ability to discern with the 'peace and knowing'. The word discerning in regard to the 'Gift of discerning of spirits' is Diakrisis in Greek and means to judge, distinguish. If you have never experienced this 'peace and inner knowing' when God speaks to you, pray and ask God for these two gifts.

The question for me now was, why had I gotten this word five years ago and forgotten it? Why had I been shown such an amazing revelation only to not use it? What went wrong? I asked God why and this is what He said, - "Sometimes you are not ready to receive. You can be shown something but not until the truth of what I have shown you is made evident, can you actually receive it. Jesus learned obedience by that which He suffered (Hebrews 5:8). My children are the same. This has been a long hard walk for you, but through this the 'old you' has been dying so the new you can be reborn. I needed to redefine and shape you for what is to come."

I deliberately waited over four months until I got the 'peace and knowing' to release this word. Why? Because I wanted to test this word to make absolutely sure it was of God. I didn't want to be teaching people how to discern the voice of God if I myself had it wrong. I am extremely confident with confirmation from the Holy Spirit that this is indeed a sure fire way to discern the voice of God. I am now awaiting the true birth of the baby which is the new Ministry God has for Mark and I, and I am sure that the release of this new Ministry is not far away.

(PRAYER) – "Father God thank You for teaching me that there is a time to practice and a time to get serious. I believe You are now calling me to accuracy. I repent for stepping out in the things of God when I was unsure of the source of the voice. Although I did this in what I believed was good faith in the hope it was right, I should have waited to be sure. Faith is the confidence, the absolute assurance of things hoped for. I see now that I was not acting in Godly faith but in hope that what I was doing was from You. This is hit and miss. I ask for You Lord Jesus to continue to teach and show me Your voice. I will seek Your voice. I will now wait on You to give me the discernment of the 'peace and knowing' that operates from my spirit and not my soul before stepping out. In doing this Lord Jesus I am not being disobedient to Your commands if I get shown something to do and do not do it when I do not have the peace and knowing. I ask that You would give me the peace and knowing every time You ask Me to step out and act. I speak to the counterfeit gifts of discernment, word of knowledge and wisdom and rebuke you and command you to leave in the name of Jesus Christ. I pray for the true gifts of the Holy Spirit to help me to discern, including the gift of discernment, the word of knowledge and wisdom. Thank You. I pray these things in Jesus name, Amen."

In conclusion to all of this what I learned was that the gift of discernment gives you the ability to know the difference between His voice and counterfeit voices, but the real key is to spend time in His word, and with Him getting to know Him, because this enables the gift to grow. For myself when He speaks His Spirit witnesses with my spirit that it is from Him and I get that knowing. Although the word says that His sheep follow Him because they know His voice the word know in Greek is Eido and means to perceive, notice, discern, discover 1b) to perceive by any of the senses. I have found that it isn't the sound of the voice or even if it is quiet or loud - but by the spirit – it is a peace and a knowing. I perceive His voice by my spiritual senses – not my earthly senses. Feelings and even if something is truth or a scripture does not mean it is from Him. If at any time you think it could be from Him but are unsure because you don't have that definite peace and knowing, wait and ask for more. God is good and will always confirm one way or another.

Counterfeit Intuition – The Lord Jesus had been teaching me over a course of many years 'how to discern His voice'. This was proving a long hard lesson! He had spoken to me on many occasions about intuition and how intuition operates from our human spirit and is our gut instinct. He told me that this is where we discern Him from. I had just written an article on 'Knowing the Voice of Jesus' when I was yet fooled again. I explained in the article when God speaks and wants you to step out He will give you a 'peace and a knowing.' I call it 'you just know that you know that you know.' It is 100% knowing with no doubt which happens in the moment of receiving. Doubt can sometimes come later as the enemy tries to steal what you were given, but this is different to doubting in the moment. When you get this 100% peace and knowing in the moment you know that it is time to act in obedience to whatever He has shown you.

This is what happened when the enemy used counterfeit intuition. I previously never realised there was such a thing until the Lord showed me. Mark, myself and our two children were out for lunch when I looked at them and said "I think my nephew might tell my brother and his wife they are going to be Grandparents." It was like a strong sense of knowing that just washed over me. It was stronger than just receiving a word of knowledge. I kind of fobbed it off as my own thoughts because it wasn't the 100% true peace and knowing where you know without a doubt, but it kept coming every day for three days. I told Mark and he said, "Do you have that 'you just know that you know that you know'?" I replied "No, but I have a strong sense of 'I think it could be right'." My thought process then went like this, 'If this is right and I tell my family they might believe that I can hear from God'. Most of my family did not believe that God talked to me and gave me supernatural gifts. I came from a non-religious background so to some of my family they assumed I was 'losing the plot' when I had my supernatural encounter with Jesus and was saved. In my eyes I could have a great opportunity to show them the truth. I decided to take a step out and texted my brother saying I had a feeling/sense that their son (who was overseas on a trip and had recently met a girl) was going to tell them that they were going to be Grandparents. Not long after my niece contacted my nephew and told him what I sensed as she believes very much in spiritual things. It was officially confirmed that there was no pregnancy. I then wondered if it may have even been a warning for him to be careful or may still even happen in the next couple months.

Later that day God showed me that the word did not come from Him. He told me that the enemy was trying to get me to step out using my feelings again and were doing all they could to prevent me 'knowing' and stepping out in accuracy through discerning His voice. He showed me that the enemy uses counterfeit intuition which is stronger than physical feelings. It almost feels right but is not quite 100% right. There is a subtle difference. He showed me that all intuition acts upon your 'sixth sense' which is a spiritual sense and is greater than physical senses. The key difference is that true intuition comes from your spirit and counterfeit intuition comes from your soul. Counterfeit intuition is what mediums, clairvoyants and physics use. This is what He said to me: - "You didn't have the peace and knowing, you had a strong feeling of

'I think it is right'. 'Thinking it is right' isn't the same as 'knowing it is right'. The words 'I think so' means you are not totally sure. Because of the fact that it still felt very strong you chose to step out because you wanted to prove to your family that you hear from Me. The wrong motivation for stepping out got in the way of discerning whether it was from Me. Another thing I would not do is gossip. I would not tell you someone else's business unless it was for a Godly purpose.'

As I pondered all this I realised that what I had done was step out in a gift that I have had for a long time, even before I was a Christian. I had experienced that 'sense of knowing' many times before it happened and had been right on many occasions in the past. In fact I realised I operated in it a lot of the time, especially when my daughter and I watched television together. I had an uncanny ability to know what was going to happen before it did. Was this God? Absolutely not. It was a gift of foresight. It was counterfeit and I needed to learn the difference between them. Both were based on intuition and were what many describe as a gut feeling. I had laid down this counterfeit gift of foresight before God many times but it was never removed. I now believe God allowed it to stay to sharpen my true intuition in Him.

What actually is intuition? The dictionary says intuition is 1. The act or faculty of knowing or sensing without the use of rational processes; immediate cognition. 2. Knowledge gained by the use of this faculty; a perceptive insight. 3. A sense of something not evident or deducible; an impression.

I wondered if the Bible ever mentioned that word, so I did a search. The word intuition was not mentioned but I came across some Scriptures that explained what intuition was.

The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints (Ephesians 1:18, NKJV). The word 'understanding' here in Greek is Dianoia and means 1) the mind as a faculty of understanding, feeling, desiring 2) understanding 3) mind, i.e. spirit, way of thinking and feeling 4) thoughts, either good or bad.

The word enlightenment is Photizo and means 1) to give light, to shine 2) to enlighten, light up, illumine 3) to bring to light, render evident 3a) to cause something to exist and thus come to light and become clear to all 4) to enlighten, spiritually, imbue with saving knowledge 4a) to instruct, to inform, teach 4b) to give understanding to.

The word 'know' in Greek is Eido and means 1) to see 1a) to perceive with the eyes 1b) to perceive by any of the senses 1c) to perceive, notice, discern, discover.

The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! (Matthew 6:22-24, NKJV). 'The eye' when taken back to Greek in Ephesians 1:18 and the Scripture above means Ophthalmos and is translated 'eyes of the mind' and the 'eye of knowing'.

We see then that intuition is referring to a sixth sense which is a spiritual sense and is given by God and is called the eye of knowing. The problem is satan will counterfeit everything God does. Godly gifts operate from our spirit and ungodly gifts operate from our soul. Our soul needs to be cleansed, delivered, healed and filled with the light of Jesus and His gifts so the spirit and soul can work in Holy unison. When we are first born again the flesh (physical body and soul) war against the born-again spirit. The Holy Spirit (in our human spirit) then does a work to refine and renew our soul in alignment with our born-again spirit. This of course takes time. The eye of knowing which is Godly is our intuition and operates from our spirit, and the third eye (which is the term occultist's use) is counterfeit intuition operating out of our soul. The key to hearing God as opposed to an 'angel of light' posing as God is to spend quality time with Jesus getting to know His voice. Spend time in His word learning the Scriptures so everything you get can be backed up with Scripture. Also someone once told me 'If the thing I am being shown isn't my business would God be showing me this? A good thing to do is ask God for the gift of discerning between spirits and the gift of wisdom. These two gifts working in conjunction with our intuition I believe are what give us that 100% peace and knowing. The more time you get to know Jesus, His character and His word then the stronger this gift becomes.

(Prayer) – “Father God in Jesus name I lay down every counterfeit gift of intuition in operation. I also lay down every counterfeit gift in operation that works with counterfeit intuition such as false word of knowledge, false spirit of wisdom and false discerning between spirits. I pray and ask for Godly intuition, Godly word of knowledge, Godly wisdom and Godly discernment. If there are open doors that allow me to function in these counterfeit gifts I would ask that you would expose them so I can repent and remove them. Once removed I asked that you would close the doors to them so they can never gain access to me again. These things I pray in Jesus name, Amen.”

Freely You Have Received, Freely Give – Recently I was feeling very disappointed. I had been ministering for many years and have noticed that not many (including myself) during this time seemed to be receiving the healing, signs, wonders and miracles that they needed. I was receiving so much revelation and keys for people (and myself) but nothing much seemed to change for them (or me) that I could see. I felt burdened by it all. I complained to God. I told Him I needed to see results activated in my ministering instead of just keys and revelations as I had gotten to the point (because I was still struggling in my own health) where it all felt too hard and pretty much pointless. I told God in that moment that I couldn't do it anymore and that I wanted to give it all up. I told Him that I felt like I was wasting my time as nothing much that I could see was happening in the way of results. I then heard the Lord speak the words “You are giving them hope”. In a vision in my mind I saw a whole pile of lifelines getting thrown to people who were struggling. Pondering this I said to God “Sorry it is not enough. I want to see your promises manifested, these promises take forever and it is not enough anymore. I need a healing anointing so I ask for a healing anointing.” I spoke how I felt to Mark and told him that I truly did not know if I wanted to continue to minister anymore because it was burdening me. People were contacting me left right and centre – case after case of people struggling. I would get a word, pray a prayer, do deliverance, see their spirits lifted only to be contacted not long after because they needed more. I was tired of being unwell, tired of ministering and seeing little results for all the hours of effort I was putting in. I had literally come to a place where receiving yet another key with no manifest evidence of a result was too much for me. I needed results and needed God to fulfil His promises – not only to me but to all those who were suffering. I even began to wonder if I was deceived and shouldn't even be ministering as it was becoming all too much.

Later that night as I was reading my Bible I discerned that the Lord wanted to speak to me. Armed with pen and paper this is what I heard: “I have heard your case because Jesus has come before Me. He has brought your prayers and petitions to My Throne. The accuser has had his say. Jesus is your advocate and fought for you. There is however one more thing for you to do before you receive all Jesus has for you.” I replied and said “What do you mean? I thought my inheritance was a free gift and that I don't have to do anything to receive it” He replied, “Freely you have received, freely give (Matthew 10:8). As Jesus gives you His gift, you then pass it on to others. Remember the parable of the talents? If you don't use My gift it will be taken from you. (Although the Bible says that the gifts and calling of God are irrevocable (Romans 11:29) this passage was predominantly about Gods partial hardening of His heart toward Israel and how Israel is still God's chosen nation and will be grafted back in. In other words His promise to save Israel still stands and is a free gift). Is there anything I have given to you that you have not freely passed on to others?” I replied “I don't think so”. He replied “You told me just today that you wanted to stop passing on hope, and that this was not enough anymore. My keys and revelations that contain a lifeline of hope you have decided are not important enough to continue to pass on. When I give you these things you are passing on hope, encouragement, support and love, but not only this, also ‘life’ because they literally are a life-line. These things are needed for people to be able to continue on in their race. Without them many would not be able to stand. You are looking for results but I am telling you that you need to trust in My process. Not everyone walks in signs, wonders and miracles immediately upon being saved. And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover” (Mark 16:17-18, NKJV). These things are reserved for those who believe. But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation (Romans 10:8-10, NKJV). Not all believe from their heart the moment they are saved.

I have to test your heart to see what you truly believe. I am calling you to finish your race. Where are the signs, wonders and miracles? They are coming to those who believe!

(PRAYER) – “Father God in Jesus name I repent for not trusting in Your process. I have received many things from You and in turn judged some things not as important as others. I repent for picking and choosing to only pass on the things I deem as worthy. All things that You have given me from Your Kingdom, no matter how big or small are nuggets of gold, and are to be freely given to those in need. Thank You for continuing to feed me with hope in You, so I can continue to feed this hope to those who need it. I pray for more and more of those nuggets, which will become a lifeline of hope to those who are struggling to stand. Your ways are certainly not my ways Lord Jesus, but I will continue to trust in Your ways above my own because You are God, and I am not! In Jesus name, Amen”.

The Heart Of God – I was recently thinking about the end times and the great Tribulation that is coming upon the world and was imagining the carnage that is about to ensue upon the world. I was imagining the very end when Jesus returns and His bride is caught up with Him and they witness the end of the world and its inhabitants. I don't know about you but this doesn't fill me with peace whatsoever. I can't imagine the grief and the heartache I will feel watching this unfold. On one hand going to be with Jesus forever and having no more fleshly body and receiving our new Heavenly body is such an awesome feat, but at the same time my heart is that all are saved and no one should perish. I know that this is also the heart of God, but as I was pondering this I wondered how I would really feel toward God watching Him destroy the world and its remaining inhabitants, and casting those who have not accepted Jesus into the lake of fire with the devil and his demons. People can white-wash it all they like and say that the devil is doing it, and God plays no part in this, but at this point when the absolute end comes (when this earth is taken away) the devil is defeated and cast in the Lake of fire and God is the one who pulls the plug. I can understand why there are people who believe that God exists but want nothing to do with Him because they believe He is heartless. On the surface it appears this is the case, but this of course is not a true reflection of God and who He truly is. As a Christian I have experienced the love of God and I love Him dearly, but in saying that I have to be honest and say I still can't entirely get my head around the fact that this beautiful loving God who wants the best for me, is able to make the call to destroy sin, His creation and all its inhabitants because it has become an abomination. As a loving caring person myself I can't comprehend it and it is a side of God I struggle with, but ultimately have to choose to accept.

There are many questions I have asked Him in regard to this and He has happily revealed much mystery to me – one of which is why He created the world in the first place knowing full well Adam and Eve would sin and all these events would unfold. Below is what He told me personally and it really helped me ~

When He made the world it had to be created with an opposing force, i.e., Light and dark, Good and evil, Positive and negative. I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create calamity; I, the Lord, do all these things' (Isaiah 45:7, NKJV). Those who understand science know that the world cannot exist without this. It is the natural law of physics and the natural law of nature. The third Heaven where God lives is light. Hell (under the earth) is dark and the earth is separated into both light and dark. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day (Genesis 1:4-5, KJV). God has created for us a New Heaven and New Earth (which are both light) and will come down from Heaven to this earth when Jesus returns and the first Heaven and this earth has passed away. And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death (Revelation 1:1-8, KJV). The darkness will no longer coexist on earth with the light, but will both still be in existence to maintain the balance. Heaven itself will invade the earth removing the darkness and in its place will be a new Heaven and new earth that coexist together in Harmony and light.

Interestingly the Bible tells us that the new earth will have no night and no sun. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever (Revelation 22:5, KJV).

The new earth that is being created is all light and the old earth that we currently live in is half-light and half dark? This was not always so. When it was first created it was dark and God spoke His light into the darkness then divided it into two. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness (Genesis 1:2-4, KJV). The parallel between the light being separated from the dark represents God removing sin and darkness from man – the earthen vessel. God gives to every man and woman the choice to choose between good and evil. God wants to remove all darkness from us. In the beginning God gave Adam and Eve all the fruit of the trees to eat except for the tree of 'knowledge of good and evil.' He warned them that if they ate from this tree they would surely die. The serpent tricked them by twisting what God had said, making them think they would not die and that God just wanted to keep something good (the fruit) from them, saying, "God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." In ignorance Adam and Eve fell into disobedience and ate of the tree.

Ignorance is also classed as a sin. And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering (Numbers 15:27, KJV). Adam and Eve had to be tempted with the tree of knowledge of 'good and evil', because where there is knowledge, there is no ignorance. Ignorance is the one sin that always was and had to be outworked. The word ignorance in Hebrew is Shegagah and means 1) sin of error or inadvertence, inadvertent sin 1a) error, unawares. The word ignorant in Greek is Agnoeo and means 1) To be ignorant, not to know 2) not to understand, unknown 3) to err or sin through mistake, to be wrong. Unless ignorance was exposed it would always be there to tempt man into sin. Without knowledge of good and evil how would one know if what they did was right or wrong. God has always known right from wrong and couldn't have ignored it if man entered into sin unawares. Even if God gave Adam and Eve the knowledge of good and evil in the beginning they would still have been ignorant to the consequences of disobedience and many other things. Our choice to choose God and turn away from sin means we have to understand the difference and see the consequences of sin to avoid it in the future. We learn by that which we suffer. Eating from the tree of knowledge of 'good and evil' opened their eyes. God kept this fruit from them to protect them from knowing evil for as long as He could. Evil and darkness were already in the world as Satan became the god of this world when he was cast out of heaven. Adam and Eve now knew the difference between right and wrong. Their choice to eat of this tree enabled curses to enter the world because they were disobedient and did what God warned them not to do. The whole of creation has been outworking the sin of Adam and Eve ever since. God cannot violate free will which is the choice to choose. He has to lay all the cards out on the table and allow us to choose. He is bringing man back to the original creation before the fall by removing the world from man, but the difference is man will have knowledge and no longer be tempted to choose evil over good because they will know the consequences of sin and no longer be ignorant. Ignorance kept Adam and Eve's eyes and ears blinded. Ignorance enabled the devil to trick them. Every man and woman will have the wholeness of the Holy Spirit in him/her and see as God sees. No one will want to bring darkness back into the new creation which is why the Bible finishes with the return of Jesus and the rapture of His bride. There is no other chapters. There is no more sin and entering into rinse and repeat to start this entire thing from beginning to end again. This is for eternity. God knew the beginning from the end and this was His ultimate plan the entire time. Was it flawed? Absolutely not. If it was not done this way the world would not have the knowledge of the consequences of their choices between good and evil. Ignorance would have always been a thorn in God's creation making it impossible to live in the New Heaven and New Earth without sin. God had to design it this way to achieve the end goal of perfection. The amazing thing in this, is that God turned that sin of eating from the tree of knowledge into His gain. Through knowledge we can now defeat sin and evil. What the devil used for harm God used for good. Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices (2 Corinthians 2:11, KJV).

Another thing I understood about God is that He is so pure and so filled with light that He cannot even stand to look at sin and evil which is why He has to destroy it. I also understood that He is fair, slow to anger and so full of love for His creation that He has done everything He has done to save as many as He can. Even after this I was still however struggling with thinking about God and how I will feel when I see it all come to pass. Would I think differently of Him when it is right in front of me. He spoke to me in that moment and said to me, "I would like you to write an article about Me – I want to share My heart with you. It will capture the true essence of the heart of God and My point of view on what is to come." I agreed and sat before Him. As I started writing I felt very sad and believe this is what God was feeling as He spoke. Even afterwards as I was writing what I heard I still felt sad and heavy. I believe this is a very heavy burden God is carrying but it started to lift off me when I neared the end.

This is what I heard: - "I am God. I am the Father, Son and Holy Spirit – three in one. I made myself three persons in one so My children if unable to identify with all three parts of Us can at least identify and establish a connection with one of us. Connecting with the Father before the Son enables the Father to send the Son. No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day (John 6:44, KJV). Connecting with the Son enables the connection between you and the Father to become established. Without the Son there is no connection between you and the Father. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me (John 14:16, KJV). This is the first thing I establish in My children. If they reject Me (turn away) after knowing Me then I have no choice but to remove myself from them as I cannot violate freewill, but until they have known Me and turned away from Me, I will draw them unto Myself always. I will send people their way to teach them of Me. I do all I can to turn their hearts from their wicked ways and back to Me. My heart is for all of My children and for all of My creation but My creation has turned against Me and against itself. I grieve. I gave man free-will which is the freedom to choose and the majority does not choose Me, but yet I still choose to want to save them. I give warnings, there is much teachings of Me but still man loves his own wickedness and wants to be fiercely independent without the need for a Saviour. Man is self-serving and wants what is best to suit only himself and his needs. I have everything mankind needs but they reject Me. They do not want Me, or they want only the parts of Me that suit. They think they don't need Me. I have no choice but to destroy that which I created as it has become an abomination to Me. I want to bring man back to the original design I created but with the knowledge of sin and its consequences. There first had to be an outworking before this could be done. Sin had a purpose and now it has outworked its purpose I am going to remove it. I have made every provision and every opportunity for man to be saved. Before the end comes, the gospel will be preached in all the world. And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come (Matthew 24:14, KJV). Those who reject My word will be destroyed with the world. How do I feel about this? I weep for those who will be lost. My children will weep for those who will be lost. After this there will be no more tears for I will cause you to remember no more the pain and the horror, for I will take it away. Does this mean you will forget the events? No, but I will heal the pain.

Pray for your loved ones so none will be lost. I will not harden any hearts in this time – each will be saved or not saved through his or her own choice to choose Me. Understanding Me and the choices I have to make will help to bring understanding and forgiveness to those who have hardened their hearts toward Me. It causes Me great pain and anguish to do what I have to do, but if I did not do this the world would extinguish itself and lose sight of My light. There would be no coming back from this and the world would perish and no flesh would be saved. All I have created would be lost. This turn of events is written and is how it has to be. You cannot stop this but you can make a difference between how many souls are saved and how many are not. I have taken My Saints through a great refining in preparation for this. I am removing the world from My Bride so when the world is judged My bride will not be touched. I have given them the fruit of endurance so they can remain strong and be a light to those who are weak and failing. These ones know what it is to endure through the trials and tribulations. These ones will have a testimony of My goodness which will enable them to cling to the promises and endure until I gather them unto Me. They will help others do the same through their testimonies and these testimonies will mean the difference between life and death for many. Endurance is the best fruit I have given you right now as this will see you through until the end when I return. Many times you wanted to give up, but it was My gift of strength and endurance that you didn't."

(Interestingly a prophetess had recently released a word about how God had given a gift of endurance to His saints as He was teaching them to endure and be strengthened in Him to "go the distance" and move forward in longevity, and to run empowered by the Spirit into all that He has for them and their destiny stronger than ever and without hindrance. After I read this I decided to do a study on endurance and found that the word 'patience' was also a synonym for endurance. Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience (James 1:3, KJV). The word patience here in Greek is Hupomone and means The characteristic of a man who is not swerved from his deliberate purpose and his loyalty to faith and piety by even the greatest trials and sufferings. What came to me when I was doing this study was that God is trying our faith and those who remain firm through their trials will be chosen by God to carry more of His light and power in the end during the great tribulation because He can trust their endurance. These ones will help the ones whose faith is wavering. I believe that a lot of the suffering the Bride of Christ is currently going through is in preparation for the end.)

He continued, "My ways are not your ways but what I have in store for you, (for those who believe in My name) when the New Heaven and New Earth come will far surpass anything you could ever possibly ask or imagine. There is only light and no darkness. There is no pain, only joy. There is no fear, only peace. There is no hate, only love. There is no sickness, only fullness of health. It is the ultimate oasis of blessing that I have for you and for all those who choose to live with Me in My Kingdom. The end and what is to come is a great and terrible day but the beginning of what is to come after the end is great. I have to look at the end result and focus on this and this is that you need to do too. Focus not on what is bad, but what is good. Be prepared and ready and never stop seeing Me as a God who loves you and has an oasis for you. This is the ultimate end goal to all who choose Me. I abhor sin, I abhor evil. It has no part in Me. This was the only way to remove its influence from the world I created. The earth and all its creation just had to outwork the sin of ignorance and disobedience and all its consequences before it could turn away for good from those things that are not of Me."

He then asked me if this had opened the eyes of my understanding. I replied 'Yes, absolutely it had'. 'I pray that it also opens the eyes of your understanding too in Jesus name'.

What I learned from writing this is that the plan God had for mankind was written from the beginning and He used the best possible way for mankind to live in absolute peace, health and harmony whilst still giving us free will to choose good or evil. Evil has to exist as this is the law of nature and God had to find a way to allow evil to overplay itself so that we would hate it as He hates it and it could be cast out of His entire Kingdom. He has given us every opportunity to choose to enter His Kingdom with Him and choose life over death. When the trials come what will you choose? Will you see the true heart of God and continue to trust in Him or will you harden your heart to Him and see only what the devil wants you to see?

(PRAYER) – “Thank You Lord God that Your ways are higher than our ways. I am sorry if I hardened my heart toward You and saw You as anything other than good. I ask to see You only through Your eyes and never through the eyes of deception or misunderstanding. Thank You that You had a plan for all of creation before the beginning of time and You orchestrated this plan so that we could enter Your New Heaven and New Earth without any hidden areas that may tempt us to sin. You made sure that You removed everything that could interfere with us having a wholesome perfect existence with You. Thank You for the knowledge that is used for our gain, and that You turned to good what the devil meant for harm. Thank You that You give us free will – the freedom and choice to choose between Your way and the worlds way. The road to God has been narrow but You have been there with Me the whole way – leading and guiding Me. You are my light. I pray that the fullness of Your light in me would be a light to those who are flailing in the darkness. Thank You for the gift of endurance so that I would not be swerved from my purpose and faith in You even by the greatest trials and suffering. Help me to see You and see Your true heart no matter the trial or tribulation. Help me to reveal the true heart of God to the world. In Jesus name, Amen.”

Discerning between flesh and Spirit – What is the flesh and what is the Spirit? We are a tripartite being meaning we are spirit, soul and body. The flesh according to the word of God in Greek is Sarx and means physical body and carnal nature of man. The carnal nature of man is our soul (mind, will and emotions) and is sometimes referred to as our heart. The Bible tells us that the heart of man is wicked and needs to be sanctified. Spirit in Hebrew is Neshamah meaning Breath of God and Pneuma in Greek meaning breath/spirit/wind. Another word for spirit in Hebrew is Ruwach and means wind, breath, mind, spirit. Seat or organ of mental acts. As seat especially of moral character. The Holy Spirit first dwells within our human spirit and goes to work to sanctify the soul. The soul and spirit war against one another until the soul is sanctified and comes into line with the born-again spirit.

When I was first saved I prided myself on the fact that I could easily discern between my own thoughts and the Holy Spirit speaking to me. What I found harder was discerning between a deceiving spirit and the Holy Spirit when the deceiver came to me as an angel of light. The Lord gave me the gift of discerning between spirits and took me on a journey on learning His word and character so that gift could grow. The reason I found it so easy to discern between myself and Him was because He would talk to me in such a way I knew it couldn't possibly be me. I am a deep thinker and I know myself really well. He has also many times talked to me in screeds of sentences about topics I knew nothing about so of course it was easy to discern it didn't come from me.

Recently however I had received a word from God and as I was reading it to my husband he discerned that a part of the word couldn't possibly be from God because it was factually incorrect. I was incredibly upset because after I had finished receiving the word I had that knowing in my spirit that witnessed with His Holy Spirit that the word was from Him. I did recall though that as I was receiving the word I had a tiny check at one point but couldn't work out why as I still had the knowing it was from Him. The Lord had been talking to me about the reaping and sowing effect and how our actions determine a negative or positive outcome. I received the word and had written it down as I heard it coming. I have a very active mind and as I receive words from Him (and am writing them down) I am very aware that I am pondering on what I am receiving.

God speaks to me through my mind using my thoughts and imagination and as He spoke to me about this principle of reaping and sowing and the natural law of cause and effect my head immediately transitioned ahead to my own natural knowledge of the law of physics and I wrote down that reaping and sowing was based on the law of physics. The law of physics as I understood it was 'For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction'. To me this was the same as the spiritual law of reaping and sowing. This was the problem – as I was reading the word to my husband I read out the part where I spoke about reaping and sowing being based on the law of physics. He stopped me immediately and told me that physics is for the physical only and that reaping and sowing was the spiritual law of cause and effect and that physics is mathematical and the opposing reaction has to be equal to the original action – and this is not the case in the spiritual realm of reaping and sowing. In this realm one can be greater than the other but both laws are based on the cause and effect – one is spiritual and one is physical. In my own understanding of this principle my mind had run ahead of God and put words in His mouth that He did not speak to me. I was very upset and wondered how often had my own head done this – slotted in thoughts and written them down with the words that God had spoken and assumed all was from God.

How could I tell the difference? I had assumed I was bullet-proof – easily able to discern my own fleshly thoughts from His words that He spoke to me because they were so different. This little practice showed me that this was not so. I sought God and asked Him how I could prevent this from happening again. He had taught me so much on how to discern His voice from the deceiving spirits and up until now I had not bothered asking about how to discern between Himself and my own flesh as I was not aware it was an issue until now. This is what I believe He spoke; “The antichrist is rising up. The flesh (carnal nature) of man is anti-Christ. What is of the flesh is not of Me. The flesh has a voice and is against the ways of the Spirit. It will tempt you to do those things that are not of Me. Until the flesh has been put to death by the Spirit it will always try to undermine me. The flesh likes to dominate and control. Today it overplayed itself. You have operated out of the flesh believing it to be Me many times and it was not. How do you tell the difference? The flesh drives, the Spirit nudges. The Spirit is gentle, the flesh is overpowering. Patience – when you are receiving words although I download quickly there are times you need to pause and reflect. In the pauses (which are those times I fall silent) you need to wait and not rush ahead to fill in the space. I take pauses on purpose. What should you do in those pauses? Go back and reread the passage I have given you. Flow on effect. When I am speaking to you more often than not you are trying to interpret or understand what you are hearing. Your own thoughts can go off on a tangent in the direction that your interpretation of what I am saying is showing you. This is how the flesh tries to over-ride the Spirit. I pause when I discern your thoughts are interpreting incorrectly or going away from what I am showing you. This is a sign to pause, reflect, re-read and begin again through the Spirit – putting to silence the work of the flesh. Natural knowledge versus Godly knowledge – this will often be antagonistic to the ways of God. As long as you are open and willing to be taught I will reveal new things and new ways to you. The pauses are what you look for – stop, reread and allow the Spirit to reign.”

As He spoke this to me I smiled as I knew exactly what He meant by those pauses where He was speaking and then He would stop – my head would naturally race ahead and fill in the gaps. So many times He had been speaking to me and then He would just stop in mid-sentence. I never thought to question and ask why He did this, but now I know – my head was running ahead and misinterpreting what He was showing me and I ran the risk of discerning and writing His words from my flesh. We are always in such a hurry – God is not. Take time to sit with God and practice hearing His voice speak to you. Sometimes He will use your natural knowledge (if it is correct and Godly) to confirm or re-iterate what you already know but in these times of receiving always look for the connection (that knowing) that can only come from your spirit witnessing with His Holy Spirit that what you have received is from Him.

This knowing is a peace that comes deep within. It is not a peace that you can tangibly feel as it is not based on feelings. This peace that is based on feelings is known by the New Age as enlightenment or euphoria –this is false peace and is done by the use of your soulish emotions. The peace and knowing that comes from the Holy Spirit is not a feeling but instead a deep sense of security, peace and comfort that comes from the intuition area of your spirit. You just know that you know that you know!

Another way we can discern from our flesh is when we have a desire to see something happen in our own or another one’s life. Our desire might cloud what God is saying and we may misinterpret what He is showing us – or our emotions may completely take over and we believe it is from God when it is from our own soul. There may also be times where God did something a certain way once or twice before and we can enter into a mind-set of just doing it that way again without waiting on God for His direction. It is so important to wait on the Holy Spirit and see what He is saying and telling us to do rather than doing what we believe we should do. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies-through His Spirit who dwells in you. Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God (Romans 8:5-14, NKJV).

(PRAYER) – “Father God I repent for all the times I believed I was hearing ‘You’ instead of discerning I was hearing from my own flesh. I repent for the times I have discerned incorrectly out of the desires of my own heart instead of Your desires and Your will and purpose for myself and others. I am also sorry for the times that I have assumed that You wanted me to do something a certain way without seeking Your way and direction first. I pray that You would put to death ‘my flesh’ by Your Holy Spirit working in my spirit. I pray that You would give me the greatest discernment to know Your voice and direction each and every time You speak to me. Please show me always when it is the work of the flesh or a deceiving spirit in operation working through me instead of Your Holy Spirit. If I have given words from You to anyone and included false words that were not from You I repent and ask that You would put them right. I ask that when You speak that You would give me that ‘You know that you know that you know’ deep sense of peace and security. I ask also that You would remind me to ask if the word is a now word or if I am meant to hang on to it for a later time. If something is not right with the word I have received I ask that Your Holy Spirit would give me a strong check in my spirit to show me that something is not quite right so I can seek You and enable You to correct if necessary. I am sorry if I have at any time ignored a ‘check’ given from the Holy Spirit. Thank You Holy Spirit for the discernment You give to me. In Jesus name, Amen.”

God-given Faith – God has given me numerous promises. They are in regard to my healing from physical symptoms and anxiety disorder in which I have been waiting many years to see fulfilled, and also in regard to a greater anointing that He has promised to bestow upon me for healing of His Church. In a state of struggling in my own health and honestly finding it hard to continue to minister to other people at times I see how important it is not to ever lose sight of these promises.

Recently I had a month off from ministering at the request of God as He asked me to seek Him every day by worshipping and interceding for all the people He has called me to reach through this Ministry. He told me that as I worshipped and prayed for others, I would receive His healing whilst I was in His presence. A minister a couple years ago gave me the exact same word, that I would be healed in His presence as I prayed for others. God also told me that in this time of entering into His presence I would receive a greater anointing of His power to set the captives free. This anointing He told me is the ‘Blood of Jesus anointing’. This anointing of the Blood remits the sin and heals the corruption in the DNA of man.

Healing comes at a cellular level. He told me that I would carry this anointing and that I would also teach others how to achieve the same. Knowing this and knowing these things I continued to be obedient to Jesus and His word to me. At the end of the month I was expectant. I had done what He had asked and was waiting for the promise. The day came for me to begin ministering again. I still wasn’t healed and I was struggling. In fact I was very concerned that I could do what He had asked of me in my current state. On top of this I was grumpy – another word yet no fulfilment of the promise. I set off and ministered under the anointing with a couple of other ladies and the session went well. Afterward I came home and was absolutely shattered. The next day I was still shattered – in fact I felt worse than I had felt in a long time. I ranted to Mark again about how I felt. I complained that God had promised I would receive the new anointing and be healed when I entered in His presence and prayed for others. Mark then pointed out to me that the recent promise God had given me didn't state I would be healed straight away at the completion of the month exactly when I had finished interceding. Well I needed to be healed now. I was getting desperate. I was tired of waiting and if God wouldn't heal me how could I possibly continue in the will of God when He was neglecting my needs? I went to my room and cried. I sobbed to God. I told Him that I respected Him and didn't mean to be coming across as disrespectful in my complaining, but I was angry. I told Him I was angry. He had given me a promise and I was helping other people through my ministry but was still left shattered and struggling. I complained about how unfair it was and how I was struggling to trust Him because His promises were never coming to pass. I told Him it felt to me like He was a liar, and that I was sorry I was seeing Him as a liar because I know He is pure and not a liar? I wept for quite some time. He then spoke to me and this is what I heard; “Would I lie to you? My promise still stands. If I said I would heal you then I will heal you. I am God and I do not lie. I promised that you would receive My healing when you trusted in Me. Trusting Me is a blockage in your life. Your healing of fear and anxiety needs My love, security and comfort. You need to be in My loving embrace to feel the security and comfort I have for you to give you peace. How can I give it to you until you trust me enough to enter into My embrace.” I then had a vision of myself under a waterfall with a torrent of water washing over me. He continued, “Revival flow. If I gave you a promise then I will do as I said. You did what I asked. Your last and final test. Do you believe in My promise enough to withstand? You withstood. You never let Me go because You trusted in My words. You never let go of the promise. You are angry because My promise is with-held from you. If you didn't trust the promise as much as you do then you would not be so angry. Do you understand? I want you to be righteously angry and fight for what is yours. If you believe in Me and My words then you will never let them go no matter how much they tarry. You will stand on them no matter the circumstances. When doubt comes if you look to Me I will again fill you with hope. I am looking for ones who can trust in Me (the Son) for all things and remain in Me until the end. I am looking for these ones who stand on My promises and never let them go. Perilous times ahead. I need to trust in you that no matter the circumstances you won't let go of Me and My promise. What else have I promised? To return and gather My bride unto Me. At the end of the great tribulation My Bride will be gathered up unto me. Who can withstand? These ones who have weathered the storm and stood firm in their promises and never let it go. These ones who trust Me. You know My words are truth and when you hear My truth it is your life line of faith. You must cling to these words and never let them go. Faith comes by hearing and by hearing the word of God (Romans 10:17). My promises to you still stands – as does My promise where I told you I would gather you unto Me so you can receive a greater infilling into your soul. In this infilling you will be raised up and be able to stand firm to help lead and guide My Church in the storm. You have stood firm in your own storm so I can entrust you to help bring them through theirs.”

I then asked when I would receive the fulfilment of My promise. His reply, “When you least expect it.”

For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Habbukuk 2:3, KJV).

“Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life” (Proverbs 13:12, KJV).

I then realised that what He was asking for was steadfastness in Him. I was seriously lacking in this department. I would become strong only to fall again at the next hurdle. I would believe His word only to allow satan to cause me to take my eyes off Jesus again. Many days after the meltdown I then asked God if there was a way that He could help me not to doubt, to not take my eyes off Jesus and if so could He please give it to me because in my own humanness I could not do it? This is what He spoke; “The gift of faith. A supernatural ability to see beyond what is humanly possible to enable you to believe without doubt.” I had prayed so many times for the gift of faith and even believed at various times I had received it, but it was fleeting, I really needed it to be in operation at all times, especially when it came to trusting in God. Interestingly a couple days before I finished writing this I had a visitor who gave me a word that God was going to impart to me security and comfort and remove my anxiety. She told me that God wanted me to operate from a faith perspective rather than a fear perspective and that I was also not to allow others or myself to condemn me for my fear and lack of trust – rather to accept that I couldn’t do this in my own strength and allow God to meet me where I was at. I prayed to God and asked Him to give me the gift of faith to trust Him, to believe unconditionally in His promises, and to always believe in His word and what He spoke to me. I asked Him if there was anything He could give me that would remove all doubt, and that I really needed His help. I then had a vision of two presents. Both were in pink boxes with red bows. Inside one was white paper lining the inside of the box and two eyes. Inside the other was no lining paper but a single note of paper. On it was written two words ‘Your healing’. He continued to speak; “I am giving you the gift of faith to carry you across the finish line. Eyes to see. This gift will enable you to see above your situation and through the eyes of God to give you a Godly perspective instead of a worldly one. It will also be used in Ministry. You will see for them. You will see right into the root of situations and know exactly what to do. I am taking you above everything that hinders the promises of God. You will dismantle them from a Kingdom perspective instead of a worldly one. I am taking you right to the root of the problem. You will see My truth and right through the lies of the enemy. Your ministry will change. This anointing changes everything. The gift of faith gives you the ability to believe. Once you believe you can receive the new anointing of My Blood. The new anointing will work with the gift of faith. The anointing I am giving you backs up your belief of faith. You believe unconditionally and your belief will activate My anointing. You cannot believe in your own strength. I give you the supernatural belief to believe above and beyond what your humanness allows. The Blood that remits the sin will be released alongside your faith. You see, you believe – the anointing proceeds. Faith with works. First you will receive the gift then the anointing. How do you receive this gift? Through My grace. When you have exhausted all avenues of self My grace empowers. My grace is sufficient for you, for in your weakness I am strong. Your weaknesses will now become strengths. You will receive My empowering grace – the favour of God. I have tested (tried) your heart and I found the weaknesses. I look for and draw out the weaknesses. Why? So I can impart My strength into those weaknesses for My glory. I see how much you can or cannot do. I test your strengths, I test your weaknesses. The suffering is me pulling out and revealing those weaknesses. When you cannot do it anymore I give you more grace. This area of My word is not being taught. You have to be stripped right back before I can use you to your fullest potential in Me. All I need for you is to never let Me go through the storms. This is trusting and hoping in Me because you cling to Me and never let Me go. Many let Me go in their storms. I am looking for those ones who do not. These are the ones I can use.”

It then hit me that faith is not something anyone can conjure up for themselves. All faith is given by God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith (Romans 12:3, KJV).

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast (Ephesians 2:8-9, KJV).

Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 1:13-14, KJV).

Paul understood that the faith and love in Christ He received was given to Him by God through His grace and mercy and that Paul himself did nothing in the way of works to achieve this. [Looking away from all that will distract us and] focusing our eyes on Jesus, who is the Author and Perfecter of faith [the first incentive for our belief and the One who brings our faith to maturity], who for the joy [of accomplishing the goal] set before Him endured the cross, disregarding the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God [revealing His deity, His authority, and the completion of His work] (Hebrews 12:2, AMP).

Trusting God fully for me is a weakness from a wound that came as a result of my Mum and Dad separating when I was ten. My Dad left the security of my family unit. I was no longer secure in a family environment. Everything had changed. The head of the home and the one who protects the wife as the weaker vessel was no longer there. This was where the fear that ‘God may let me down’ had come from. To truly let go in my own strength was a feat too hard for me. He was showing me that in my own strength I could not do this so He was going to give me His grace to help me to do it. Eleven years of walking with God and I am still going around the same mountain I was when I first began. My walk with God has been about laying down self and surrendering to His will. He has been pruning me, preparing me for His call and purpose by stripping away those things that were of no use to Him. Every weakness that He brought forth was so

He could put His glory upon it. His glory upon these weakness becomes a testimony of Gods goodness that can be brought to others.

Each time I fell He gave me more of His faith through His grace to enable me to keep looking unto Him. The key is partnership with Christ. You have to stay right by His side in order for Him to be able to comfort you and give you the keys you need so much to continue. You need to be willing to put aside time to seek Him even if what He says isn't what you want to hear. If we are willing to allow Him to prune us then we can be confident that He will finish the good work He began in us. So much of what is taught today is about what God has for us and what we can achieve through Him, but unfortunately not many preach on the cost and what it truly takes to walk with Him. God once said to me that salvation is free and does not cost us a thing, but for those who want to walk in His anointing and receive all He has for us while we are in the world there is a cost. When I receive my promise of healing my testimony will be full of the goodness of God but it will also be about what it is to be a true disciple of Jesus. The true cost of what it is to become Christ-like in a fallen world that has become about 'what is in it for me'. God created us for Him and for one another. We are all here to work in His Kingdom together in unity to do His will. Not only is Christianity about the sacrifice of Jesus, it is also about our sacrifice for Jesus – which is to lay down our lives for His sake, His body (the Church). We all want the anointing but are we willing to pay the price? What is the price?

To be willing to allow Jesus to uproot from you all those weak things so that He can be glorified when He gives you the grace, power and anointing to be set free from them. You then become a living testimony for Jesus, for Him to use you to glorify Himself and help others. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's (1 Corinthians 6:20, KJV).

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service (Romans 12:1, KJV).

And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? (Mark 8:34-36, KJV).

(PRAYER) – “Father God I repent for my complaining and impatience. I repent that I doubted Your sincerity and I am sorry that I could even consider that You may have lied or mislead me. I choose to trust in You in all things. I have counted the cost and am willing to enter into the fullness of my destiny You have chosen for me. I choose to take Your hand and allow You to pick me up when I fall. I understand that You want to highlight every weakness I have so that when Your strengths rest upon them I will have no boasting as it will be not of my own works but through Your grace that I am victorious. I ask for Your strength and endurance so I can withstand through any storm and help others to withstand through their storms also. Thank You for my promises which will become a tree of life when they come into fulfilment. Help me to continue to cling to these promises and stand firm on them. Help me to cling to Jesus as My Lord and Saviour and never let Him go no matter the cost. I pray to be continually filled with hope and faith for my promises so that when doubt comes my faith will stand and endure and dismantle any doubt or unbelief before it can become a stronghold in my thinking. I am sorry I have allowed unbelief and loss of hope to again cause me to take my eyes of You. Help me to keep my eyes firmly fixed on You. I pray for Your grace and for the fullest measure of faith You can give me to help me to achieve all You have called for me to do. I accept these gifts in Jesus name. Thank You, Amen.”

Post Deliverance Infilling Prayer - “I break every curse over my life from pre-conception to the present day in the name of Jesus Christ. I ask Father God that every curse would be replaced with a blessing. In the name of Jesus and by the stripes He bore on His body I pray for healing within every area of my spirit/soul and body. (Pray specifically for all ailments). I command all misalignments to come into divine order in Jesus name. I cast out the spirit of infirmity in Jesus name. I cast out fear, shock and trauma in Jesus name. I command every fibre, every cell and every part of this body to come into divine order. I command all pain to leave in Jesus name. I pray for a creative miracle in all areas where body matter needs to be regenerated. I command all cells, cell structure, DNA, RNA, and all parts of the spirit/soul and body not to remember all traumas in Jesus name. I pray for the fire of God to burn off all remaining remnants and dross in Jesus name. I command every demon who has access to me to leave immediately in Jesus name. With the blood of the lamb I seal all doorways closed to the demonic and declare that demons can only exit and not re-enter. I bind the demonic doorkeepers and terminate their assignment against me in Jesus name. I ask for the Holy Spirit to infill with light all areas that were once dark in Jesus name. I pray for a hedge of protection to be placed around me and for any holes to be repaired in Jesus name. Thank You Father God in Jesus name for delivering me”.
